Introduction to Empire State Animal Response Teams (ESART)

Self-Exam and Certificate

1) Please Print these pages. Choose the best answer on this page. Fill out your name, date and signature on the next page and retain for your records.

2) I have read through the self-paced CART/ESART Orientation.
   a. Yes
   b. No

3) What does a State Animal Response Teams (SART) do?
   a. Work with County Animal Response Teams (CARTs) to plan, prepare for and assist in aspects of animal disaster response
   b. Self-deploy to accident sites
   c. Volunteer for animal shelters
   d. Work in veterinary clinics

4) Under which system are Empire State Animal Response Team (ESART) and CARTs organized?
   a. Incident Command System (ICS)
   b. Linux
   c. Feudal Lord
   d. Anarcho-syndicalist commune

5) Why are ESART/CARTS important?
   a. Pets are a Life Safety Issue: Pets are a major reason that people do not evacuate during an emergency and a leading reason that they return before it is declared safe. Planning for animal welfare is planning for human welfare.
   b. They help pets find new owners.
   c. They fund-raise for the county.
   d. They self-deploy and are first on-scene to traffic accidents

6) How is a CART team or CART member activated?
   a. Deployed by the County Emergency Manager (or delegate) through the ICS system
   b. Self -Deployed
   c. Social Media

NEW YORK STATE OF OPPORTUNITY.™ | Agriculture and Markets

Certificate of Completion

Print Name

Empire State Animal Response Team

County Animal Response Team Orientation

Self Study

_____

Signature   Date

ESART Website

New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets

Division of Animal Industry